Introduction

– Will you tell us about how You live There?

– Yes, I will tell you and others! I intend to slightly reveal to people what the life of souls looks like after parting with their bodies. I want to show how much more interesting life is for those who develop themselves as souls. And, of course, to tell about how I live here, how I Work. I will talk about how life is perceived from Within by a newly formed Divine Spirit. How do They feel, Those who have recently merged into the Ocean of Brahman after an intensely lived life on Earth with aspiration solely towards the Knowledge of God, immersed in investigative meditations and meditations of Merging with the Primordial Consciousness.

The comprehension of Unity with God from within a body on Earth was described by Me in many books, a methodology was formed. And now there will be a story from There!

Perhaps many will be interested in how Gods live Here, how the world of people and the subtle non-material worlds are seen and perceived from here.

In any case, this will be useful for my friends and disciples of our School. You will all receive the opportunity to increasingly "relocate the center of life perception" into God. More and more, you will grow accustomed to seeing through God's eyes, thinking and acting in Mergence with the Primordial.

And it is wonderful to continue guiding the School, no longer being in a body on Earth.

The Divine Adler, the Great Divine Teacher, creator of our Planet, joined the conversation: "There are not many such examples in the history of Earth. Usually, disciples only observe the techniques and traditions left by Masters during their lifetime, and further development does not occur or becomes distorted altogether. But your School was originally created by Divine Teachers and developed under Their direct guidance. And now We will continue this on a new level, as one of God's formerly successful disciples has become one of Us and can continue to guide his disciples from his new Divine status.

So – forward! May there be a new book by Master Vladimir Antonov!

Chapter 1.

What Happened Immediately After the Death of the Body

– Tell me about the moment of death...

– The first thing I must note is that I very quickly shed the energetic sheaths of the body associated with its functioning on different planes of multidimensionality. I began doing this even before the death of the physical body. I was rushing into the Embrace of God, I was no longer clinging to this world and wanted only to be with Him!

I-consciousness, was bound to the body by only a very small part of Myself, while My Divine part was immense. This part, like a Magnet, like the attraction of an incredible Force, drew into the Ocean of the Primordial all the remnants connected with the body. This “tearing away of the last veils” happened very rapidly – as if the energetic sheaths holding the final connection with the body were ripped away at tremendous speed – and I found Myself in the Embrace of the Beloved and dissolved completely...

In those worlds, the concept of time exists, but it is very different from the earthly understanding of time. There exist different speeds of the BEING of the ABSOLUTE.

I found Myself in Unity FOREVER, and the sense of ETERNITY of this Universal Self became a sense of Infinity within another understanding of space and time.

Then there came a State in which The “I Am I within this Unity” activated the Mode of Action of My Brahmanic Part. This was interesting, because there was no longer a transition from the Infinity of the Ocean to the Light-Fire manifestation. Here and now everything is perceived by Me SIMULTANEOUSLY – both the Ocean of Calm and the activity of His-My Brahmanic Part.

With appropriate attunement, it is possible to perceive Any of the Divine Teachers who have Attained Realization – or all of Them together!

And the joy of meeting My Teachers was a Celebration, solemn and tender, without words, through mutually penetrating states of Consciousnesses in Love-Tenderness.

You may also wish to know whether there was a review of the last life or of many lives, like a “movie rewinding backward,” as many describe at the moment of death. Yes, that review also occurred for me, but later, not immediately. It was no longer shown to Me, I studied it myself. The Divine Spirits can review any of Their incarnations and see the alternative paths by which life could have unfolded. And there is a difference between the scenarios of departure of souls who have Attained Divinity and those souls who will incarnate many more times.

Chapter 2.

The Multidimensionality of the Post-Mortem Worlds

– Tell me what happens after the death of the body with the consciousnesses that have not attained Divinity...

– In the “after-death” worlds, between the Brahmanic Light and hell, there exist many worlds. The Universe is like a thick layered cake, where each layer is filled with its own ingredients. The Universe can also be compared to a “multi-storey building” with many rooms on each floor.

This “layered cake” or these “floors of the building” are not merely multiple layers of multidimensionality. In each of them there are many spaces separated by boundary-membranes, of various sizes on each layer-floor. They resemble villages, cities, temples, and natural spaces – similar and not so similar to physical reality. From higher levels, consciousnesses can easily cross these boundaries. From within, they are perceived as a kind of misty horizon. The inhabitants seem to see nothing beyond their “little world”... It is perceived as the only existing one.

The perception of all these worlds in detail is possible, with proper attunement, even from the state of a human incarnated in a body during meditation.

However, for such perception, humans usually apply individual attunement templates, archetypes, already known forms in which they “dress” the knowledge they are perceiving. This is the language of images and of the soul’s mindset, which adapts everything into a form understandable to the perceiving individual. Thus, one will see angels with wings, another mythological gods or demons, and a third the Forms of Divine Teachers in accordance with their traditions and worldview.

The souls inhabiting each dimension reside in isolated parts of this “building” or “filling of the multidimensional cake.” Within their “groups,” they can perceive and communicate with each other.

From subtler layers, it is possible to guide processes within such spaces. Moreover, this guidance is carried out by souls of higher levels, though not necessarily Divine ones. A kind of curation exists on different levels.

From the Active Part of the Divine Consciousness, all these energies are easily visible. They appear like reflections of light and shadow in a body of water. If attention is directed somewhere, details “emerge as needed.” If one does not “peer closely,” then from within the Divine Light all this multidimensional space is perceived simply as pulsating luminous energies. With focused attention, details become increasingly manifest.

Holistic perception is more typical of Divine Souls (Consciousnesses) and this is also reflected in how They communicate with One Another..

For example, right now I am placing “integral understanding” into you, and you are “unpacking” it into images, thoughts, and words. Master this method.

But there is yet another way of KNOWING, where there is no Me who tells and no you who perceives – there is only the ONE I OF GOD. Master this Depth! Thus the channel through which Knowledge can come into dense worlds will expand and be purified.

Chapter 3.

Interaction Must Be Learned

– Do you want to incarnate as an Avatar?
(He laughs and jokes.)

– No, “God forbid”! I would not want to play the role of a Divine Messenger for crowds, for millions of followers, even with miraculous abilities. Even now I am sharing all My new Knowledge, including through this book. I continue to Perfect Myself. I invite people to aspire toward the knowledge of God and of themselves.

– We observed how Your presence and activity increased in the places of power You created.

– Yes, I was adapting to the New Life. And now I continue to explore new possibilities of Development here and of helping others. It is interesting to interact from Here with you, those who knew Me in life or who simply read the books and practice the developed methodology. It is no less interesting to learn interaction with other people who have never heard of Me at all.

Seen from Here, from the Divine eons, everything is simple: there are no problems or difficulties, everything is elementarily easy to understand – one only needs to direct attention to the question or task. Situations are not felt or perceived as difficulties or obstacles. There is an infinite Source of energy for Creation, for changing reality... But I have not yet forgotten how this was perceived when there was an earthly body, when dense energetic burdens of mind and consciousness were present.

I will help you master the knowledge of the Divine Masters who knew how to live in the multidimensionality of the Absolute with complete centering in the Primordial Consciousness and at the same time act through divinized bodies. You will need to master being in bodies in the world of matter with a fully Divine status of the consciousness. This will require effort and total dedication. This task is elementarily simple from My current point of view: simply never lose, even for a moment, Divine Vision, Divine Thinking, and Awareness in the All-encompassing Primordial Calm. But, at the same time, for this to happen, the instrument of the body must function properly.

Therefore, I ask you not to neglect the health of your physical bodies. Pay attention to this, it is necessary for fully using your potentials in Service to God and the evolution of all beings.

– Will your book be of interest to anyone besides us?

– Forget that. It does not matter at all. Knowledge is needed by those who need it – and those consciousnesses will be drawn. They will need God and the attainment of Unity with the Divine We. Now write what is important to you and to all our friends. Even if what we are doing now helps only a few souls, God, in the Aspect of the Unified We, will already be glad. In the Divine World there is a different scale of values than in the earthly world. The success of a soul in overcoming its vices and mastering the ability to live in the Light is more valuable than worldwide fame.

Right now, immerse yourselves ever more fully in My Perception of the Universe – this will be interesting.

One can learn, while living on Earth, to constantly sense the Time and Space of God. This gives a different perception of the living rhythm, the pulsation of the radiation of universal energies, and adds a Deep Peace to the understanding of everything that happens in the Absolute.

This will be a new level of mastering the “three stages of centering”: sensing one’s center simultaneously in the Abode of the Primordial, in the Brahmanic Light-Fire, and in the body. This is the unification of all multidimensionality in a natural self-sense from the Primordial Depth.

Now, for all My students, a wonderful opportunity opens to perceive the Absolute simultaneously from two sides. This is a unique situation: the Master has already crossed to the other side of the Veil separating the Creator from His Creation, while the students, who strongly feel the connection of consciousness with the Master, remain incarnated in bodies and continue to learn and perfect themselves. I am ready to help, show, and tell you the NEW!

I taught you direct contact with the Divine Teachers – this is important! And now, from the Depths, I will be able to give new aspects of Knowledge and methods that are difficult to transmit without very deep contact and interpenetration of consciousnesses.

The objectivity of perceiving any object or situation increases significantly when people look at it together, as a pair or a group. It is no coincidence that successful scientific research is conducted by groups of scientists who unite their consciousness to achieve a goal. In a similar way, the effect is amplified during collective meditations by spiritual practitioners, for when the consciousnesses of meditating people are united, each of them experiences the meditative practice intensified by the collective field!

And now we have the opportunity to learn to unite the vector of view from God with the vector of view from the incarnated human state for the most successful advancement of souls on the path to God. This will be an experience of a new, multi-faceted, unified vision.

Chapter 4. Service. Collaboration with God

– Devote yourselves to works of Service whose fruits will not appear immediately!

It is important to remember: “The result of action belongs to God!”

Now, for you and for many people on Earth, it is already relevant to begin seeing together with God the evolutionary tasks of the future and to draw attention, not to immediate results, but to the wise expediency indicated by God. This means caring for long-term and global assistance in the development of consciousnesses and for the transformation of the Planet's ecology into a Harmonious state.

There are specific tasks that God can place upon the shoulders of those who truly know Him and are ready to help these processes consciously.

This is precisely what I now want to emphasize especially for you, My students! Your task is to create on Earth SOURCES OF DIVINE LOVE!

Yes, purification of the body on the material level, purification of the mind, purification of energy and psyche are necessary for this. Otherwise the individual simply cannot remain at the required level of subtlety. The body must be a stable and reliable conductor.

If this is neglected, then the "Water of Divine Life" becomes covered with the "ice" of human form. And then God has to melt this "ice" through bodily illnesses or other "difficulties" and "problems."

Our books, including the new ones that you have only just conceived, are greatly needed. They will remain in the Treasury of Divine Knowledge of humanity for the future.

Very soon the time will come when spiritual books will be sought by wide masses of people for personal development and for the upbringing of children. The imbalance toward materialism will end. And the time of spiritual rebirth is inexorably approaching.

You can already observe the beginning of this process now – the growing interest of many people in various practices for body and consciousness.

This does not mean that you, Anya, in this lifetime in this body, will be able to see the flowering of spirituality on Earth, but our books will not merely witness it – they will create it.

Now it is necessary to continue laying the foundation for this New Time.

Chapter 5.

Multidimensionality and the Potential of the Soul

It is time, My friends, for you to realize that you are bearers of Knowledge about God. This is not a reason for pride, but a responsibility. It is necessary to enrich this Knowledge, preserve it in purity, and share it wisely and generously!

And now it is essential to say something important about how one can share.

In all the world's religions, there are Saints and Divine Messengers who are worshipped after the death of Their bodies. In many religions, there is an understanding of the One God. Yet this essential core has still not become the foundation for a unified religious worldview, because the disagreeing denominations and beliefs have become "ossified" in dogmas and rituals.

It is important to convey to reasonable people the new Knowledge and understanding of the processes of soul evolution, of the labor and life of Divine Souls – whether they have bodies or not – of the Unity of the Primordial Consciousness of the Absolute for all worlds and all religions, and of how all this is structured in the Universe.

I and the other Divine Teachers are not a figment of imagination, this is a FACT! This is LIFE that truly exists in the Universe!

And this Life of Divine Souls exists not only to ensure the possibility of existence and evolution of consciousnesses on Earth. Life in the subtle and most subtle worlds is diverse, multi-leveled, and multi-aspectual.

It is important to discuss this – for this is precisely what you can begin to master right now.

With sufficient expansiveness and subtlety of consciousness, and the ability to fully dissolve the individual “I” through the practice of “Total Reciprocity,” it is possible to live and act consciously and simultaneously on multiple levels of multidimensionality!

We can observe this clearly in the life of Avatar Sathya Sai Baba:

He was continuously in Unity with the Primordial Consciousness. He acted through the Brahmanic part of Himself on different planes of the Multidimensional Absolute, and at the same time, He worked through His physical body. Moreover, the body created special, unique opportunities for encompassing the entire multi-aspectuality within the confines of Earth.

He created places of power and His Mahadoubles in any location. He communicated with and helped countless people, manifesting His non-material and materialized Forms (down to the physical plane) on any of the levels of multidimensionality. The principle of creating such Forms is the same for all planes of multidimensionality. Only the final point is situated at different levels of density within the Absolute. He could also create Forms of other Divine Souls: Krishna, Jesus, and other images to explain to souls what was necessary. He responded to requests to God even from people who did not know of His Existence.

During the time of our interaction with Him, you and I did not fully comprehend His Life in His interaction with non-embodied beings and Other Divine Consciousnesses. We could only witness how He and other Divine Teachers communicated and interacted among Themselves in the process of Their communion with us.

The mission of Sathya Sai Baba as an Avatar was directed, first and foremost, toward helping souls incarnated on Earth. But His activity was not limited to the deeds of Service on Earth. It extended into the subtle worlds as well, realizing the Creative Plan in different spheres of existence. Baba also emphasized many times that every person contains within themselves the potential to become God!

You must gradually begin to realize the Potential of Divine possibilities and skills.

It is a bit difficult for you now to maintain the perception of how each of the Rays of the Divine Sun of You-the-Soul realizes its tasks from the One Source. But you need to understand, for a start, that it is possible to act simultaneously and consciously on different levels of the Absolute.

One can live and act while simultaneously being aware of:

1) Existing as the Primordial Ocean of Divine Unity and Peace, where the Infinite Potential of Being and the source of all Creation resides.

2) Being an active Brahmanic Constituent and acting, creating projects for the future on the subtle planes, places of power for meditation, and also helping specific souls.

3) Using the body as a transmitter of the Divine in the spaces of the dense layers of the Absolute.

– Is it possible to be aware of all this simultaneously from the body?

– No, this is not done from the body. However, while having a body, it is entirely possible to perceive this! You can rise to the level of Divine comprehension of a situation – and then you will be capable of seeing and acting on the corresponding plane. The mind of the body can have an understanding of what actions and processes are being carried out, if necessary, or it can remain an "Instrument of God in Another Hand," without perceiving information that would overload its normal functioning.

But it is important to develop within yourself the ability, through the part of the consciousness (soul) bound to the body, to sense the moments when there is a need to begin actively and consciously acting from the Brahmanic part of the consciousness.

Sometimes, when necessary, one can simply "request information" about this Activity of Oneself-the-Soul, or understanding about any important situation in the Absolute.

And the most important thing – one must learn to constantly be aware of "I AM" at the level of Divine Being!
